TELLING TIME

Tic-Tac-Toe Game

This game is perfect for helping kids practice telling time to the hour. Just print this page, grab 2 crayons/bingo markers/unifix cubes, two dice, and a friend. The first person rolls 1-2 dice then counts the dots and colors one clock with that hour. The next person takes a turn; play continues back and forth until all clocks on the page have been filled in. If there are no more clocks for the number you rolled, roll again. The person with the most 3-in-a-rows wins.

Tic-Tac-Toe Game

This game is perfect for helping kids practice telling time to the hour. Just print this page, grab 2 markers, two dice, and a friend. The first person rolls 1-2 dice then counts the dots and makes a small hour hand on an empty clock of their choice to reflect that time. The next person takes a turn; play continues back and forth until a person gets 3-in-a-row or you end in a draw. Try again in the next grid to give kids lots of FUN practice!
